

JOB DESCRIPTION

Language and Culture Analyst

SUMMARY:

The role of the Language and Culture Analyst is to promote the NAN Language Strategy through ongoing language and culture initiatives that support language and cultural learning within the NAN territory. The Language and Culture Analyst is also responsible for the ongoing development and implementation of work plans associated with the Bilateral Process on Lifelong Learning and the implementation of The Journey Together: Ontario's Commitment to Reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples.

DUTIES:

- Work as a key member of a province-wide team devoted to the Bilateral Process on Lifelong Learning;
- Develop and implement work plans to address the Strategic Plan associated with the Bilateral Process on Lifelong Learning;
- Work to support and strengthen language and culture within NAN by planning and implementing various initiatives that will promote learning and language;
- To coordinate, administer and manage issues relating to provincial education programs and services;
- To support the Director of Education with the implementation of the education related resolutions as mandated by the Chiefs of Nishnawbe Aski Nation;
- To represent Nishnawbe Aski Nation on committees, board's and other councils as requested and approved;
- Assist in meeting core and proposal based approved work plan outcomes;
- To provide support and advocacy for First Nations individuals, communities and families when requested;
- To attend meetings as required and/or requested;
- To organize and facilitate meetings or workshops on education issues;
- Prepare proposals, submissions, activity and financial reports to carry out the activities related to the Bilateral Process on Lifelong Learning and to support language and cultural learning within NAN;
- Develop and implement work plans and resolutions in accordance with NAN policies and procedures and funding terms and conditions.
- Prepare regular progress reports for the Bilateral Table on Lifelong Learning;
- Deliver presentations as requested;
- Work as a key member of a province-wide team devoted to the Bilateral Process on Lifelong Learning with the province;
- Consolidate information and develop written communications;
- Liaise and strengthen relationships between First Nations, Tribal Councils, Provincial Territorial Organizations (PTO's), provincial education systems and ISC;
- Collaborate and share information in a dynamic team environment within COO;
- Perform other duties as required.

Political Advisory

- To provide technical policy support and liaison with respect to emerging education issues to the Education portfolio holder and Director of Education as requested.
- To undertake research projects, as required and assist in developing language and culture, communication and information materials;
- To draft correspondence, proposals, internal documents and briefing notes under the authorization of portfolio holder or Director of Education;
- To coordinate information exchange between the Director of Education, management and staff on matters which require attention and action and will include organizing meetings and teleconference calls;
- To review, summarize and analyze technical, policy and political reports and documents as required;
- To prepare briefing materials for the Executive Council or Director of Education when requested.

ACCOUNTABILITY

The Language and Culture Analyst is accountable to the Chief Administrative Officer and the Director Education for overall performance and to the Education Manager for day-to-day operations.

COMPETENCIES AND QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's Degree or Equivalent Experience in an education-related position
- Knowledge of First Nation education issues, challenges and delivery models
- Ability to work effectively with others
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Ability to work both independently and in a team environment
- Strong communication skills with proficiency in developing written communications and the development and delivery of oral presentations
- Willing to travel to First Nation communities, in small aircrafts
- Fluency in at least one of the languages (Ojibwe, Oji-Cree or Cree) is required.

LOCATION: Thunder Bay, ON

PORTFOLIO: Education

REVISED: March 2022