Culture Immersion: Land-Based Learning Gathering

May 17 & 18, 2023 | Thunder Bay
In-Person & Virtual

CALL FOR PRESENTERS

On May 17 and 18, 2023, Nishnawbe Aski Nation (NAN) will be hosting this year's Land-Based Learning Gathering.

The goal of the gathering is to inspire teachers in learning and understanding the important teachings the land offers and to incorporate this way of life within all subjects.

NAN is seeking a variety of interactive presentations to encourage educators and education ambassadors to integrate land-based learning concepts into their curriculum.

We welcome all presentation proposals that are relevant to elementary and secondary school education and encourage presentations that focus on incorporating land-based learning concepts into subjects such as literacy and numeracy, social sciences, the arts, or health and wellness. We are also interested in presentations that focus on how to support educators who are interested in bringing land-based learning concepts into their classrooms.
