

JOB DESCRIPTION

Administrative Support Coordinator

Reclamation and Healing

SUMMARY: The role of the Administrative Support Officer is to perform the administrative support and assistance for the Reclamation and Healing department in daily operations. This position will work closely with the Health and Cultural Support Officers and will require expertise in case note writing, meeting coordination, minute taking, record-keeping and advocacy skills, and knowledge of health and cultural supports and resources and referral information.

DUTIES:

- Act as first point of contact for general department enquiries.
- Plan, coordinate, and complete administrative tasks pertinent to the department.
- Support the Survivors and Families Empowerment Council (SAFE Council), Indian Residential School (IRS) and Indian Day School (IDS) Survivors and their families and NAN First Nations as required. Support the department's implementation of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action.
- Support strategy development and planning activities and implementation of the department's work plans, including communication processes.
- Assist in implementing projects or initiatives identified by the department.
- Assist in client referrals and advocacy, including the identification of appropriate health and cultural supports and resources, and ensure a healthy environment for clients.
- Complete and maintain case records and department and required documentation in a timely manner.
- Participate in ongoing teamwork and planning quality improvement activities.
- Participate in the evaluation on the effectiveness of programs or services and make recommendations as necessary.
- Complete and maintain department data and records.
- Coordinate meetings, workshops, information sessions, special events, conferences, or community visits including travel details and provide support as required.
- Prepare purchase orders, cheque requisitions, and expense claims accurately and in accordance with NAN policies and procedure for the Director's approval.
- Prepare and create presentations, resources, and materials.
- Attend or participate in meetings as required, including team meetings.
- Establish and maintain effective working relationships with organizations, agencies and NAN departments including the NAN First Nations.
- Assist with research undertaken by the department and prepare summary reports.

-
- Prepare briefing notes, memorandums, activity, and reporting documents and assist with proposals as required.
 - Maintain an effective and organized filing system to store organization information.
 - Ensure department work is conducted in an appropriate and culturally relevant manner, sensitive to the customs, traditions and practices of the NAN First Nations.
 - Abide by all NAN approved policies and procedures.
 - Travel to NAN First Nations and urban centres as required.
 - Perform other duties and responsibilities as required.

OTHER JOB REQUIREMENTS: Driver's Licence, Criminal Record Check

COMPETENCIES AND QUALIFICATION:

Candidate must possess the following skills and attributes:

Education: Post-secondary education in Office Administration or related field is desired.

Experience: Three (3) years related experience in coordination or administrative position.

Knowledge: This position requires knowledge of First Nation issues and challenges and a knowledge of community resources available throughout the NAN Territory. This position requires knowledge of typical budgetary and financial recordkeeping and reporting requirements. Strong administrative skills and proficiency with Microsoft Office applications is essential. Ability to speak a NAN First Nation language is an asset.

Effort: This position requires excellent communication and interpersonal skills, analytical problem-solving, time management skills and organization skills. A strong attention to detail and ability to demonstrate sound ethics and judgement is essential. This position requires a high degree of organization, priority setting and communication in a confidential environment. This position may require lifting objects in and around the office and loading of materials off-site.

Working Conditions: This position requires the ability to work in a fast-paced environment and manage competing demands in a team setting. This position may require to be on call and travel extensively on short notice.

Responsibilities: This position requires the ability to work in a variety of settings, and with individuals and team members to complete administrative tasks.

ACCOUNTABILITY:

The Administrative Support Coordinator is under the day-to-day supervision of the Director of Reclamation and Healing, with overall accountability to the Chief Administrative Officer.

NAN CORPORATE SERVICES

100 Back Street, Unit 200
Thunder Bay, ON P7J 1L2
www.nan.ca

Phone (807) 623-8228
Fax (807) 623-7730
Toll Free 1-800-465-9952

LOCATION OF WORK: Thunder Bay

PORTFOLIO: Reclamation and Healing

CREATED /LAST UPDATED: April 2023

